

Mara Coblic, born in Romania.
Killed in the Holocaust.

Since 1955, Yad Vashem has continuously worked to fulfill its mandate to memorialize every Jew who perished in the Holocaust by collecting the ultimate representation of their identities: their names. Survivors, relatives and friends of victims participate in this historic task by completing “Pages of Testimony” in an act of personal commemoration. These Pages are preserved in the Hall of Names at Yad Vashem, Jerusalem and are also incorporated into the Central Database of Shoah Victims’ Names.

To date, half of the six million victims have been recorded in the Names Database (www.yadvashem.org) where one may access their brief histories and, when available, their photographs, as well as submit additional names online.

Millions more victims may be forgotten forever, unless we recover their names today. You can ensure them a place in history by filling out Pages of Testimony, or by assisting others with this vital and urgent task.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING PAGES OF TESTIMONY

Before filling out a Page of Testimony, search the online Names Database at www.yadvashem.org for victims known to you.

1. Use the “Feedback forms” on the site to add information or photographs to an existing victims’ record.
2. Click “Submit New Names” on the Names Database search page to submit information on Victims for whom no Page of Testimony exists (even if the names appear on archival lists).
Pages of Testimony may also be filled out by hand (over)
3. Complete a separate Page of Testimony for EACH victim, including children. Additional forms may be photocopied, downloaded from the site, or requested from Yad Vashem.
4. The minimum required information is in bold. Additional details are welcome. Write the names of people and places as close to their original spelling as possible, in Latin characters.
5. If a name is unknown, write “unknown” in the “Victim’s First Name” field and specify gender and parents’ names. If the victim is a child, write boy / girl / child in the “Victim’s Family Status” field.
6. When available, submit a photograph of the victim, or send a high-resolution scanned image.
7. If circumstances of death are unknown, circle: “unknown-Shoah” in the “Circumstances of death” field.
8. Write in pen, in clear, block letters.
9. Sign and date each completed Page of Testimony and return the ORIGINAL signed copy, unfolded, to your local representative or mail to: Yad Vashem, Hall of Names, P.O.B 3477, Jerusalem 91034, Israel

Please note:

- You do not have to be a relative of the victim to complete a Page of Testimony for him or her.
- Testimonies given to organizations other than Yad Vashem are probably NOT in the Names Database.
- Pages of Testimony are intended to memorialize Jews who perished DURING the Holocaust, or in the months following liberation of the camps. Victims of anti-Jewish persecution who survived the war should be registered on survivor forms, available at www.yadvashem.org/download/pdf/Surveng\_new\_LAST.pdf
